

Part 1: Match the words and the animals:

aardvark

duck-billed platypus

giraffe

koala bear

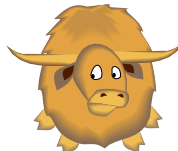

ring-tailed lemur

orangutan

sloth

yak

Part 2: Read and guess the answers!

- Aardvarks' tongues are
 - 5 centimetres long
 - 15 centimetres long
 - 45 centimetres long
- Male giraffes are about
 - 3 metres tall
 - 5.5 metres tall
 - 7 metres tall
- Sloths move at
 - 0.16 kilometres an hour
 - 1.6 kilometres an hour
 - 16 kilometres an hour
- Male orangutans weigh up to
 - 90 kilos
 - 75 kilos
 - 50 kilos
- Yaks can live in temperatures of minus
 - 10 degrees Celsius
 - 25 degrees Celsius
 - 50 degrees Celsius
- A baby koala bear is called
 - a cub
 - a joey
 - a koaly

Part 3: Read the puzzles and match the descriptions to 5 of the animals above!

- I live in South and Central America.
I hang upside-down in trees.
I sleep 15 hours a day.
I eat fruit and leaves.
I move very, very slowly!
What am I? _____

- I live in Australia.
I swim in lakes and rivers.
I lay eggs.
I eat insects, worm, shrimps and crabs.
I've got feet and a bill like a duck.
What am I? _____

- I live in Madagascar, an island off Africa.
I like sitting in trees in the sun.
I eat fruit, flowers and leaves.
I've got a black and white stripy tail.
What am I? _____

- I live in the rainforests of Sumatra and Borneo.
I climb trees.
I eat fruit, flowers, leaves and insects.
I've got long red hair and very, very long arms.
What am I? _____

- I live in Tibet, China and India.
I climb high up into the mountains.
I eat grass in summer and snow in winter.
I've got long brown hair and long horns.
What am I? _____